HISTORY MUSEUM OF MOBILE HOSTS “EXPLORE MOBILE”

The History Museum of Mobile is pleased to announce that the Third Annual Explore Mobile will be hosted on Sunday, June 2, 2019 from 1:00 pm to 6:00 pm in Mardi Gras Park.

Sponsored by Trustmark, Explore Mobile is a local block party in Downtown Mobile celebrating local history, attractions music and food in the Mobile Bay area. Live music will feature Teddy Williams, The Speaking Sparrows, The Cedric Brooks Project and a performance by The PACT, a local performing arts training center. Attendees can explore 300 years of Mobile stories inside the History Museum of Mobile, experience Colonial life inside the walls of the Colonial Fort of Mobile, gaze upon the period rooms of the Conde-Charlotte Museum House, step back in time as they navigate the Dora Franklin Finley African-American Heritage Trail, brave the seas of their imagination at Gulfquest, and more!

Free admission will be available to the History Museum of Mobile, The Fort of Colonial Mobile, Mobile Carnival Museum, Condé-Charlotte Museum, Historic Oakleigh Mansion, and the Dora Franklin-Finley African American Heritage Trail Tours. Discounted admission will be available to Gulfquest Maritime Museum and the Wild Native Harbor Boat Tours. Also on site with information will be the Exploreum, Historic Mobile Preservation Society, and Battleship Memorial Park, and Bellingrath Gardens & Home.

The Museum is also grateful for support from City of Mobile Special Events, Visit Mobile, Alabama Bicentennial, Mobile Arts Council, and Downtown Mobile Alliance.
