The HISTORY MUSEUM OF MOBILE's December Learning Lunch program will feature Scott Wright, General & Artistic Director of Mobile Opera

The History Museum of Mobile's October Learning Lunch program will take place at 12pm on Wednesday, December 13, 2023. Scott Wright, General & Artistic Director of Mobile Opera, will give a presentation on Madame Rose Palmi-Tenser, the founder of Mobile Opera.

Scott Wright has been active in the Mobile arts community for more than forty years as a singer, actor, conductor, composer and arts advocate. He has performed in more than sixty operas, including more than forty productions for Mobile Opera; in oratorio and sacred works with the Eastern Shore and St. Paul Choral societies, Musica Sacra, Mobile and Gulf Coast symphonies, the Alabama Symphony Orchestra, and Wheeling, W.V. Symphony; as well as musical theater works on the stages of the Joe Jefferson Players, Mobile Theatre Guild, and Chickasaw Civic Theater. He is Conductor in Residence for the Alabama School of the Arts at The University of Mobile and General Director Emeritus of the International Performing Arts Institute in Kiefersfelden, Germany.

The History Museum of Mobile invites the public to attend the free Learning Lunch lecture series. Guests are encouraged to bring their lunch and enjoy a presentation on a historical or cultural topic. For more information on Learning Lunch, contact Jennifer Theeck, Curator of Education, at (251) 301-0270 or by email at theeckj@historymuseumofmobile.com.

HISTORY MUSEUM OF MOBILE: The History Museum of Mobile is where Mobile's story begins. Over 117,000 objects weave together the rich, diverse, and often turbulent histories of Mobile and the surrounding area, from the prehistoric past to the present. Located in the heart of downtown, the History Museum is in the Old City Hall - Southern Market building at 111 South Royal Street. For more information, please visit: www.historymuseumofmobile.com
