

HISTORY MUSEUM OF MOBILE

Our story starts here

MEDIA ALERT

Stephanie Evans
Marketing & Events Manager, History Museum of Mobile
(251) 301-0273
s.evans@historymuseumofmobile.com

HISTORY MUSEUM OFFERING FREE CARRIAGE RIDES AT FAMILY FRIENDLY OUTDOOR HOLIDAY EVENT

WHAT:

The History Museum of Mobile will be closing out their Colonial Christmas events at Colonial Fort Conde with Carriage Rides & Cocktails. This free event offers families the opportunity to ride in a horse-drawn carriage through historic Fort Conde Village. Visitors will enjoy live holiday music while being surrounded by hundreds of luminaries!

Carriage rides will be free and on a first come, first-served basis.

Friday night live music features Steven and Roy of The Underhill Family Orchestra.
Saturday night live music features Roman Street.

Masks are required when not sipping cocktails, and only one household/group will be permitted per ride.

WHEN:

Friday, December 18 from 5:30 – 8:30 p.m.
Saturday, December 19 from 5:30- 8:30 p.m.

WHERE:

Colonial Fort Conde, 150 S. Royal Street, Mobile, AL 36602

WHO:

Meg McCrummen Fowler, Director of History Museum of Mobile
Seth Kinard, Curator of Living History at Colonial Fort Conde

###